

SoundBytes: 2012 - The Sound Of Lancashire: North West UK

Following a series of successful events and a showcase at Berlin Music Week (2011), SoundBytes - the Creative Lancashire music initiative, with support from Arts Council England and a number of private sector partners, have released a promotional CD of original music from new and emerging artists and labels from the Lancashire region.

The CD will be distributed free and used for promotional purposes at recognised and international music trade symposiums such as MIDEM, SXSW, Liverpool Sound City and The Great Escape. This is a first for the region

Over forty bands, labels and artists submitted one or more tracks for consideration and the standard was extremely high. The bands and tracks were chosen by a panel of recognised industry leaders who were extremely impressed by the range and depth of talent in the region, which was also reflected in the feedback from our judges.

"The quality is fantastic. Every track is worthy of inclusion ...really impressed by Lancashire's creative output" Rebecca Boulton
(Manager, New Order)

Context

The music business, as one of the largest components of the UK's creative industries, is an essential part of the UK's culture and economy contributing at least £5bn annually to the economy, of which £1.3bn comes from export earnings. Music tourists contribute at least £864m a year to the UK economy. Outside of London the North West is the most important region for the UK music industry.
